

The Power of One

“ It starts with one

JUSTIN JIN/PANOS PICTURES

Rupert Isaacson with his autistic son, Rowan, visiting Mongolia to see if contact with horses and shamanistic healing could help his development

It starts with one universe.
It starts with one Earth.
With one awakening.
With one person who cares.
With one choice, one action.
With one dialogue, one collaboration, one initiative.
With one community with one mind.
With one dream.
It starts with one.”

ENDANGERED ANIMALS

RED PANDA

The Red Panda does little more than eat and sleep. If it feels threatened, it stands on its hind legs to make itself appear larger and uses its sharp claws to defend itself.
