

Figure 1: A view of the forest as seen from one of the 12-years-old stands

Figure 2: Litter-traps in the 30-years-old stand.

Figure 3: The DC system (PP-Systems) used for measurement of soil CO<sub>2</sub> efflux, the collar used for the measurement, the digital thermometer and the theta probe.

Figure 4: Static closed chambers used for the measurement of soil CO<sub>2</sub>, N<sub>2</sub>O and CH<sub>4</sub> fluxes.

Figure 5: The CF site in Harwood.

Figure 6: A closer view of the CF site.

Figure 7: Drainage ditch in the CF site.

Figure 8: Pools of water in the CF site, created from the operation of harvesting machines.